Partner-in-Faith Prayer

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessings and protection on the people of Sacred Heart Parish. We, your children at St. Patrick's, invoke your name on their behalf. We are grateful for all you have given us and in return we are mindful of those who have less than we do. Bless us all and keep us close to you. May the example of your Son, Jesus Christ, be the strength that will make us one in you. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Happy Mother's Day!

Long before he became Pope Benedict, Joseph Ratzinger was a leading theologian and one of the key contributors to Vatican Council II. One of his early books was "Principles of Catholic Theology." In it he argues that we come to experience our true humanity only because of the love and acceptance we receive from another, most notably our mothers. Here is how he puts it:

"(Alone) we cannot come to terms with ourselves. Our I becomes acceptable to us only if it has first become acceptable to another I. We can love ourselves only if we have first been loved by someone else.

The life a mother gives to her child is not just physical life; she gives total life when she takes the child's tears and turns them into smiles. It is only when life has been accepted and is perceived as accepted that it becomes also acceptable.

Man is that strange creature that needs not just physical birth but also appreciation if he is to subsist...if an individual is to accept himself, someone must say to him: It is good that you exist'—must say it, not with words, but with that act of the entire being that we call love. For it is the way of love to will the other's existence and, at the same time, to bring that existence forth again. The key to the I lies with you." (Principles of Catholic Theology, pp. 79-80)

It's no wonder then that we set Mother's Day aside each year to recognize all our moms for the special gift that they are. Some are near, some live far away. Some are alive and with us still; some have gone home to God. Whatever the circumstance we thank them all for all that they have done and are doing for us. Most especially, we thank them for giving us a glimpse of God's "no strings attached" love that they have for us. May we return that love to them today at least a little bit. In keeping with this, each of our moms in the parish will be presented with a small remembrance at the end of Mass today, following the final hymn.

St. Patrick's Carnival 2016

The annual St. Patrick's Carnival is almost upon us. It is the parish's biggest social event of the year, and our largest fundraiser. It is a week when we welcome not only our near neighbors from Bedford and Pound Ridge, but also from all the surrounding towns and villages in the area, and indeed from all of Westchester County. It is one of our region's earliest Carnivals, allowing folks to break the "cabin fever" syndrome of the winter, and also one of this area's largest carnivals. We are proud to host this wonderful event. People come to have a good time and to celebrate life. Somehow, the Easter season seems a perfect time for all of this. So, come. Enjoy. And pray for good weather! See you at the Carnival.

Words of Pope Francis

WITNESSING TO LOVE

"We are all called to witness and proclaim the message that 'God is love,' that God isn't far and insensitive to our human affairs. God is close to us, always beside us, walking with us to share our joys and sorrows, our hopes and struggles. God loves us very much and for that reason became human, coming into the world not to condemn it, but so the world would be saved through Jesus (Jn 3:16-17). And this is the love of God in Jesus, this love that is so difficult to understand but that we feel when we draw close to Jesus. And he always forgives us, always awaits us and loves us so much."
