Partner-in-Faith Prayer

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessings and protection on the people of Sacred Heart Parish. We, your children at St. Patrick's, invoke your name on their behalf. We are grateful for all you have given us and in return we are mindful of those who have less than we do. Bless us all and keep us close to you. May the example of your Son, Jesus Christ, be the strength that will make us one in you. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

General Instruction of the Roman Missal

Over the next few weeks I thought that you might find it interesting to read, or in some cases to re-read, The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, commonly called the GIRM. The GIRM begins with a Preamble that although some find dry, is fundamental to all that we say and do during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Therefore, over the next few weeks, I intend to copy in full all fifteen paragraphs that comprise the preamble.

1. When he was about to celebrate with his disciples the Passover meal in which he instituted the sacrifice of his Body and Blood, Christ the Lord gave instructions that a large, furnished upper room should be prepared (LK 22:12). The Church had always regarded this command as applying also to herself when she gives directions about the preparations of people's hearts and minds and of the places, rites and texts for the celebration of the Most Holy Eucharist. The current norms, prescribed in keeping with the will of the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council, and the new Missal that the Church of the Roman Rite is to use from now on in the celebration of Mass, are also evidence of the great concern of the Church, of her faith, and of her unchanged love for the great mystery of the Eucharist. They likewise bear witness to the Church's continuous and unbroken tradition, irrespective of the introduction of certain new features.

A Witness to Unchanged Faith

2. The sacrificial nature of the Mass, solemnly asserted by the Council of Trent in accordance with the Church's universal tradition, was reaffirmed by the Second Vatican Council, which offered these significant words about the Mass: "At the Last Supper our Savior instituted the Eucharist Sacrifice of his Body and Blood, by which he would perpetuate the Sacrifice of the Cross throughout the centuries until he should come again, thus entrusting to the Church, his beloved Bride, the memorial of his death and resurrection."

What the Council thus teaches is expressed constantly in the formulas of the Mass. This teaching, which is concisely expressed in the statement already contained in the ancient Sacramentary commonly known as the Leonine – "As often as the commemoration of this sacrifice is celebrated, the work of our redemption is carried out" – is aptly and accurately developed in the Eucharist Prayers. For in these prayers the priest, while he performs the commemoration, turns towards God, even in the name of the whole people, renders him thanks and offers the living and holy Sacrifice, namely, the Church's offering and the Victim by whose immolation God willed to be appeased; and he prays that the Body and Blood of Christ may be a sacrifice acceptable to the Father and salvific for the whole world.

In this new Missal, then, the Church's rule of prayer (Lex orandi) corresponds to her perennial rule of belief (les credenda) by which namely we are taught that the Sacrifice of the Cross and its sacramental renewal in the Mass, which Christ the Lord instituted at the Last Supper and Commanded the Apostles to do in his memory, are one and the same, differing only in the manner of offering, and that consequently the Mass is at once a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, of propitiation and satisfaction.

Words of Pope Francis

MERCY IS THE KEY

"Today's parable contains a profound teaching for all of us in this Holy Year. Jesus affirms that mercy is not only an action of the Father, it becomes a criterion for ascertaining we are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us. Pardoning offences becomes the clearest expression of merciful love, and for us Christians it is an imperative from which we cannot excuse ourselves. At times how hard it seems to forgive! And yet pardon is the instrument placed into our fragile hands to attain serenity of heart. To let go of anger, wrath, violence and revenge are necessary conditions to living joyfully. Jesus made mercy an ideal of life and a criterion for the credibility of our faith."

Spiritual Adoption—Month 9

We have finally reached the end of our nine months. Our babies are now curled up, knees against nose, completely formed, just growing size and strength. They weigh about 6-9 pounds and are about 20-22 inches long. On the day of birth, our babies, already living and active persons, make the following changes: place of residence, external life support system, eating habits. As they have already gone through many progressive and overlapping stages of growth and development, so will they from birth, continue the life begun nine months ago. What a miracle! You may never meet his or her parents, but your prayers may have saved his or her life. Once again thank you for participating in this wonderful program for life.

A life-changing event that will help you see your life, your relationships, your faith, and the world in a whole new way!
