Partner-in-Faith Prayer

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessings and protection on the people of Sacred Heart Parish. We, your children at St. Patrick's, invoke your name on their behalf. We are grateful for all you have given us and in return we are mindful of those who have less than we do. Bless us all and keep us close to you. May strength that will make us one in you. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Let us storm the gates of heaven asking God for fine weather during our carnival. Please say the following each day. Thanks.

*Almighty ever-living God, who heal us through correction
and save us by your forgiveness, grant to those who seek your favor that we may rejoice at the good weather for which we hope and always use what in your goodness you bestow for the glory of your name and for our well-being.
Through Christ our Lord.*

Last Friday and Saturday our parish celebrated the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communions. At this time, I would like to publicly thank Pat Perstein and Karen Schmidt for all the work that they do for the parish by running St. Patrick's School of Religion (formerly called CCD.) One of the most important responsibilities of a pastor is to make sure that the truths and beauty of our Catholic Faith get passed on to our children and grandchildren. I know that they endeavor to do this throughout the school year. The program they run and our Regional Catholic Grammar School are the future of our parish and our faith.

The following is a repeat from last week. Please let me or the members of the Finance Council know what you think about this proposal.

A Happy Mothers' Day to all our Mothers, Grandmothers and Godmothers.

And please don't forget Our Blessed Mother who was given to us while Jesus was dying on the Cross when He said to the beloved disciples (us): "Behold your Mother!"

Mass Offering: Spiritual Benefits

As Catholic Christians, we have a tradition of praying for our loved ones, living and deceased. The sacrifice of the mass is the highest form of prayer in the Catholic tradition. The church, therefore, encourages us to request masses to be celebrated for our loved ones, living and dead.

The universal law of the church obliges pastors and their assistants to offer masses for the intentions of their parishioners. (canon 534). Priests may also accept offers for masses and must celebrate those masses in accordance with the intention of the donors.

A mass can be celebrated for the dead. Masses can also be requested for the living on occasions such as: birthdays or anniversaries of loved ones, wedding of a friend or relative, hospitalization of a friend or a family member; beginning of a new job for divine guidance, or protection, and moving to a new home. Masses can also be requested for expectant mothers for safe delivery and students preparing for exams.

We request masses to be celebrated for our loved ones because we want to offer them the most important prayer of the church. A person who gives an offer to apply the mass for his or her intention contributes to the good of the church. He or she shares in the work of the church and the support of her ministers. Mass offering enables a donor to participate in the Eucharistic celebrations because the mass offering concretizes the donor's own prayer on his or her intention (canons 945 & 946).

Of late we celebrate masses without intentions. Though we celebrate these masses for your intentions, let us revive our tradition of requesting masses for friends and relatives, living and the dead, as a means of participating in the evangelizing mission of the church.

WORDS OF INSPIRATION:

Divine Family Reunion

The Ascension of the Lord celebrates a divine family reunion that elicits profound joy in heaven, but lonely sadness here on earth. This should not be surprising, for communion with God often requires distance from the world. The risen Christ prepares the disciples for the bittersweet reality of letting go: "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to my Father." Even in the sadness of Ascension, however, the children of God discover the Lord's presence in their hearts and in Christian community. Moreover, every gathering of the faithful blissfully anticipates our eventual family reunion as promised by Christ: "I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you."

Religious Education Teachers Needed!!

The Religious Education Program is in need of volunteer Catechists, co-Catechists and aides. We have classes on Tuesday Afternoons, Tuesday evenings and Sunday mornings (Volunteers would select which session you would like to help with). Please consider helping us deliver the Word of God...His message of love and forgiveness...to His little ones.

Although many of our teachers are parents of current students we also have Grandparents, aunts, uncles, and other parishioners assisting our program. Last year over 1/3 of our Catechists did NOT have students in the program. The Religious Education staff provides training for anyone interested in helping with this important ministry.

If you are interested in assisting us, please contact the Religious Education Office at 234-3775 or goodnews2@verizon.net. We look forward to hearing from you!
