FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

I hope everyone is enjoying the quieter days and slower pace of these summer days. They give us a chance to relax and experience a break from our usual routines. The summer is giving me a chance to get to know the ropes here at St. Patrick's and to learn more about this wonderful parish. I thank all those who have welcomed me and given me suggestions and helpful advice. I will continue to learn from Fr. Joseph and you all about St. Patrick's.

Our Gospel this Sunday speaks of the first missionary journey of the 12 Apostles. Jesus sends them out as His co-workers in building up the Kingdom of God. Today we are the co-workers of the Lord who are called by Baptism to work together as a community of faith to continue the Lord's work here and now.

May we work together in sharing God's love with all whom we encounter.

~Msgr. John T. Ferry

WORDS OF INSPIRATION:

Chosen to be Holy

As we come to know the seriousness of the situation – the wars, racism, poverty, nuclear weapons – we come to realize that things will not be changed simply by words or demonstrations. Rather it's a question of living one's life in a drastically different way. We have scarcely begun to love or to know Christ, to see him in others. The greatest challenge of today is how to bring about a revolution of the heart, a revolution which has to start with each one of us. When we begin to take the lowest place, to wash the feet of others, to love our brothers and sisters with that burning love, that passion which led to the cross, then we can truly say, "Now I have begun." Becoming a saint is the revolution.
